

Big South Conference

For more than 20 years, the Big South Conference has been a progressive, NCAA Division I athletic Conference reflecting the energy and growth of the Southeastern United States. Founded in 1983, the Big South has matured into a competitive leader in college athletics, actively pursuing excellence both on the field of play and in the classroom.

Based in Charlotte, N.C., the Big South Conference's growing presence as an NCAA Division I athletic league is evident by competitive success on the national stage, innovative marketing and media partnerships, increased football and basketball television packages, the enhancement of the quality of the student-athlete experience, and strategic planning that has carried the Big South through the first decade of the 21st Century.

Now in its 23rd year of existence, the Big South Conference continues to emerge, providing quality athletic competition while intentionally fostering the academic, personal, social, athletic and leadership development of each student-athlete.

The league consists of nine member institutions: Birmingham-Southern College, Charleston Southern University, Coastal Carolina University, High Point University, Liberty University, UNC Asheville, Radford University, Virginia Military Institute and Winthrop University, while its geographic breakdown features Alabama (1 member), North Carolina (2), South Carolina (3) and Virginia (3).

Two new members will join the Big South footprint in 2008-09. Gardner-Webb University, an associate member in football, will become a full member, joining Presbyterian College, which is beginning its transition to Division I athletics in 2006.

In the fall of 2002, the Big South welcomed the addition of football as a conference sport, bringing the number of Division I championship programs the Big South sponsors to 18. The league sponsors nine championship sports for men: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, soccer, indoor/outdoor track, and tennis, as well as nine for women: basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, indoor/outdoor track and volleyball.

Again this year, Big South champions in men's and women's basketball, men's and women's soccer, volleyball, men's and women's golf, baseball, softball, men's and women's tennis and men's and women's track & field will receive automatic bids to NCAA Championships.

The Big South continued its growing achievements in 2005-06, as the league experienced Top 15 rankings in the national RPI in baseball, softball and women's basketball, as well as Top 20 ranking in men's basketball and volleyball. Big South members defeated the No. 1 football and baseball team in the nation (Coastal Carolina football vs. James Madison and Winthrop baseball vs. North Carolina); the Big South had its first-ever national finalist for NCAA Woman of the Year (Winthrop's Janiva Willis); Liberty's Josh McDougal became the first Big South athlete to receive All-America honors in the three running sports in the same season (cross country, indoor track and outdoor track); the Big South placed two teams in the NCAA Baseball Regionals for the fifth time in six seasons; the Conference went 2-1 in its first-ever participation in the ESPN Bracket Busters men's basketball event; Coastal Carolina men's golf reached the NCAA Championship for the secondstraight year; the Big South had more than 20 All-Americans, including six first-team selections.

Last year's academic success mirrored the on-field achievements. A total of 32 Big South student-athletes were named Academic All-District, four of which earned Academic All-America accolades. In addition, 40.9% of the conference's student-athletes achieved at least a 3.0 grade point average in 2005-06 and were named to the Big South's Presidential Honor Roll.

In addition to the Big South's athletic accomplishments, the league also recognizes and honors academic excellence. Each year, the Presidential Honor Roll and the George A. Christenberry Awards honor student-athletes' outstanding work in the classroom. The Christenberry Award recognizes student-athletes graduating with a 4.0 grade point average. Additionally, the conference's Sports Information Directors annually select a Scholar-Athlete in each Conference sport, plus a male and female Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

The Conference was formed on August 21, 1983, when Charleston Southern (then Baptist College) Athletic Director Howard Bagwell and Augusta President George Christenberry initially began recruiting members into the Big South. One month later, Dr. Edward M. Singleton was selected as the League's first Commissioner and continued to solicit new members.

The league's seven charter members were Armstrong State, Augusta, Campbell, Charleston Southern, Coastal Carolina, Radford and Winthrop. In 1989, George F. "Buddy" Sasser replaced the retiring Dr. Singleton as Commissioner. Under Sasser's leadership, the conference implemented its public relations and compliance programs, and introduced it's firstever men's basketball television package, featuring the Big South competing among some of the finest teams in the nation. Sasser was so integral to the growth and foundation of the league that in 2000, the Commissioner's Cup - the annual award given to the institution with the most successful athletic year -- was renamed the George F. Sasser Cup.

In August 1996, Kyle B. Kallander replaced Sasser, who would continue to serve the league as Director of Athletics at Coastal Carolina until his retirement in 1999. In his 10 years at the helm of the Big South, Kallander has been instrumental in aggressively promoting the conference, including the development of the Big South Marketing Group, which has resulted in increased revenues and exposure for the Conference and its members.

He also brought television coverage to Big South women's basketball and baseball for the first in conference history, created the Big South Television Network in 2001 - which boasts a League-high 18 affiliates, and was the driving force behind the formation of the Big South Hall of Fame.

In addition, Kallander has solidified membership with the addition of High Point in 1999, Virginia Military Institute in 2003 and future members Gardner-Webb and Presbyterian in 2008.

The Big South continues to secure aggressive and unique television packages, making the conference one of the leaders among all Division I Leagues in television exposure for its student-athletes. During the 2005-06 season, the conference's football TV package produced four thrilling, last second outcomes, including three overtime contests; men's basketball received additional national exposure on ESPNU, baseball was televised for the second-straight year, and the women's basketball tournament semifinals and finals again aired regionally and nationally.

Entering this season, the 2007 Advance Auto Parts Men's Basketball Championship game will once again air on ESPN2 as part of the network's "Championship Week" programming. The conference also boasts relationships with FSN South, Comcast SportsNet (CSN), Comcast Sports Southeast (CSS), College Sports Television (CSTV), Fox College Sports (FCS) and ESPNU. In addition, the Big South Television Network (BSTN) will again air football and basketball games to local affiliates throughout the region.

Big South Tournament

2007 Big South Basketball Championship

After a successful trial season of home sites for all guarterfinal matchups during the 2003 Big South Men's and Women's Basketball Championships, the Big South Conference expanded the home court advantage throughout the entire three-game tournament as each game of the 2004 Advance Auto Parts Big South Men's and Women's Basketball Championships was hosted on the higher seed's home court.

The Big South Conference saw some of its greatest attendance totals in the history of the tournament under the continually-evolving format, including a 51.1 percent growth rate in total attendance on the men's side of the tournament and a near sell-out crowd for the 2004 championship game. A total of 8,515 fans packed the Vines Center on March 6, 2004, watching the Flames claimed their second-ever title with a dominating victory over second-seeded High Point on ESPN2's national television coverage.

With the outstanding success of the 2004 Big South Men's and Women's Basketball Championships, the Big South Conference extended the trial period for another year under the home site format. That made the 2004-05 Big South Conference regular-season race more important than ever as each team had the opportunity to host the entire tournament on its home court, including a championship game in front of its hometown supporters.

Over 15,000 fans attended games during the 2006 Big South Basketball Championships, including 5,076 in attendance at the Winthrop Coliseum as the Winthrop Eagles picked up their sixth title in the last eight years in front of their hometown enthusiasts.

The 2007 Advance Auto Parts Big South Men's Basketball Championship will begin on February 27 with quarterfinal match-ups at the four higher-seeded teams' arenas with games scheduled for four simultaneous tip-offs at 7 p.m.

Winners will advance to one of two semifinals on March 1, which will be broadcast on the ESPNU at 6 and 8:30 p.m. at the site of the regularseason champion. The championship game will be played at 2:00 p.m. on March 3 and will be broadcast LIVE on ESPN2 as part of Championship Week with the winner being crowned Champion of the 2007 Big South Men's Basketball Championship and earning the coveted automatic bid to the 2007 NCAA Tournament.

The 2007 Advance Auto Parts Big South Women's Basketball Championship, for the first time since 2002 will return to a one-site format for the entire tournament. UNC Asheville won the right to host the 2007 and 2008 Advance Auto Parts Big South Women's Basketball Championships.

The 2007 Advance Auto Parts Big South Women's Basketball Championship will start up five days following the crowning of the men's champion as the women's tournament will kick off action with four quarterfinal games on Thursday, March 8. The four winners will advance to square off in two semifinal games on Friday, March 9, for a pair of contests at 6 and 8:30 p.m. Both semifinal contests will be broadcast LIVE on the Big South Television Network.

The championship game will be played on Saturday, March 10, with a 2 p.m. tip-off at the Justice Center on the campus of UNC Asheville. The game, being broadcast LIVE on SportSouth, will see the victor climbing up the ladder to cut down the championship net at the conclusion and laying claim to the highly sought-after automatic bid to the 2007 NCAA Tournament.

With home court advantage on the line throughout the entire Big South Basketball Championship, the level of excitement surrounding each Big South regular-season game should be at an all-time high during the 2006-07 season as EVERY GAME COUNTS!!!!
